CONTRIBUTION SPOTLIGHT

By Advocate Ahmad Mardeni

What is Graph Social?

Graph Social is an International web3 meetup with a primary goal of driving the The Graph ecosystem growth. The first 3 meetups will be organized in Dubai because the city has proven itself as the web3 hub of the world.

What were the highlights of the first Graph Social event you organized?

At our first web3 event in Dubai, we had eight speakers. I (Ahmad Mardeni) introduced The Graph as a protocol, talked about the recent achievements, and explained how to participate by building a Subgraph, becoming an Indexer, or simply joining the vibrant community we have. Other highlights included:

- Isabella from DeveloperDAO & Router Protocol pushed the crowd to build more decentralized products and talked about how Router Protocol's internal structure was inspired by The Graph. Router Protocol's CTO & co-founders were in attendance as well.
- Tenderize talked about GRT liquid staking and explained what they are building as the first liquid staking dApp that is focusing on the protocol level.
- OOKC Labs was one of the first The Graph supporters as an incubator, they talked about their future vision for The Graph and about the new fund they are starting.
- Infy Protocol talked about their experience using The Graph since their dApp completely relies on The Graph and then talked about what they are building as an NFT renting protocol. Infy was hosting their own Graph Node and paying around $3000 a month. They migrated their Subgraphs to the Hosted Service and are having a good experience.
- After the event, so many startups started using The Graph officially instead of the centralized solutions they were using. One example is, Obvious. They were not using The Graph and have now integrated a ENS subgraph.

The first Graph Social was held in Dubai on October 8th, 2022. Do you have plans for when and where the next Graph Social Event will be held?

Graph Social is turning into an official monthly series of events. The first one was one of the most successful web3 events and the next one will be so huge on a new level completely.
