What would you like to accomplish as a Graph Advocate?

1. It is with great desire that I realise the prospects that have appeared at the junction of these directions like web3. I guess The Graph is an undervalued market and I'll want to play my part to amend it through R&D.

Why is web3 important to you?

2. I love web3 and I want to make an impact in this unique, developing and fantastic sector. I am well versed to know what tools to use to positively influence the characteristics of this sector to its fullest potential.

What inspired you to select the Advocates roles you have chosen?

3. I prefer to fluently evangelise & motivate people in a positive way to explain how The Graph functions. This can be optimized with multiple languages in a simple, concise, understandable manner. My intent is to help users understand The Graph by informing them about the possibility of web3 in the best & most accessible way for the majority.

Which of your Advocate Contributions are you most proud of?

4. My video about The Graph is the embodiment of minimalism informative exposure. It was a complex job: only useful information. Everything was thought out to the nuances: from the text to the sound design and the correct organisation of web3 identity elements. Just a few seconds – and several secrets of web3 are revealed.

Which of your fellow Advocates would you like to shout out?

5. Savant Max has lead on the ground experience in building effective communication strategies, business development, and consultancy to achieve realistic business objectives in an ethical effective manner. I'd also like to shout out jiimxjim.eth for analytical thinking, productive & polite communication.
